The map illustrates the path of the Beihang high-speed railway line, which connects three villages: Wan'an Village in Qidong, Wan'an Village in Chongming, and Wan'an Village in Tachang. The railway line is shown as a black dashed line winding through green fields and water bodies. Three blue location pins mark the exact locations of these villages. To the right of the map, large text reads "一条高铁串起三个万安村" (One high-speed railway connects three Wan'an villages). Below this, a smaller text box states: "启东、崇明、太仓3地各有一个名叫‘万安’的村庄，它们被正在建设中的北沿江高铁‘串珠成线’。" (Qidong, Chongming, and Tachang each have a village named 'Wan'an'. They are connected by the Beihang high-speed railway under construction, forming a chain of pearls.)
