As a symbolic person in Chinese art history, the great master of a generation Zhang Ding is profoundly related to Nantong. On 18 October, brocade embroidery Zhang Ding - Nantong embroidery artists pay respect to master Zhang Ding exhibition was open at Nantong Museum, which presented a great story in art circle which spans 40 years. Zhang Ding participated in a series of major art design works in new China: art design of founding ceremony of China, alteration design of Zhong Nan Hai, design of national emblem, CP-PCC Emblem, Monument to the People’s Heroes, the 1st set of stamps of China, design of ‘ten major buildings’ of Beijing, worked as chief designer of Chinese Pavilions of a series of World Exhibition... his works were presented in another form - color brocade embroidery, which is a recreation from Nantong research institute of art and craft guided by him.

In 1980, Zhang Ding was invited to Nantong research institute of art and craft to guide youths in the institute in learning and work.

In 1983, ten thousand-mile great wall which Zhang Ding guided Nantong institute of art and craft to complete was installed in great wall hotel in Beijing. It is the largest color brocade embroidery mural in the world.
Zhang Ding’s wife Huiwa (Li Zhao) is a famous poet. The 93-year-old lady came to donate Completed works of Zhang Ding which consists of 16 volumes to Nantong Museum, and told the story about when Zhang Ding chose Nantong to do color brocade embroidery. Huiwa recalled that ten thousand-mile great wall was a 70 m long work, to present with local art embroidery, it was necessary to find the team with best skills in China. He looked for in many famous embroidery places in China, and finally chose Nantong where high end craft school was founded in the end of Qing dynasty. Huiwa remembered that after ten thousand-mile great wall was completed, Zhang Ding said with joy that only Nantong people can do the large landscape painting with embroidery precisely.

In 2017 when it was Zhang Ding’s 100th anniversary, Nan-tong embroidery artists which were tutored by Zhang Ding and created color brocade embroidery history gathered again, encouraged and supported by Zhang Ding’s wife Huiwa, created 11 embroidery works of Zhang Ding’s paintings, which became the best part of ‘100 years of Zhang Ding’ series academic events.

The 6 ‘young embroidery ladies’ 40 years ago and current embroidery artists are Jin Leilei, Feng Meiqi, Wang Jianhua, Zhang Jian, Zhou Fen and Jiang Xingmin. They are all local Nantong people.
