Took Covid-19 vaccine and felt the warmth 3 foreigners sent silk banner to the community

By Yuan Xiaojie

‘Got vaccinated, we can go home without worry.’ On 10 May afternoon, two foreign friends from Finland and one from Estonia went to Hefeng community, Yongxing streets of Chongchuan district, and gave a silk banner with the words ‘plague is ruthless but in China there is love’ written on it to CPC Committee of the community.

The three foreigners are Sami, Taisto and Timo. They are all experts who came to China to participate in polar expedition luxury cruise interior decoration project, and they would return to their homes on 15 May. They had booked the tickets already, but vaccination was not done yet, and they were worried about that. To have a try, they went to CPC Community of Hefeng community, and expressed their trust in Chinese vaccine and willingness to get Chinese vaccine. Hefeng community arranged voluntary interpreter Tang Juxiang to accompany them. The three foreigners took buses together with residents of Hefeng community, went to mobile cabin hospital and got vaccinated.

‘China is the safest place. Here epidemic control work has been carried out well. I can go to any places in China without worry.’ Sami said that after taking the 1st dose, they had been thinking about how to thank the enthusiastic community workers and volunteers, and they saw the silk banners sent by other residents at the community, so they also chose this way to express their gratitude.
